Winemaking

The Danza Bolero is a masterful blend crafted from Upper Galilee's superior Merlot and Cabernet, coupled with Petit Verdot. The combination offers a wine of great complexity and exceptional aging potential of 7 to 20 years.

Tasting Notes

The Bolero delights the senses with an aromatic array of blue fruits, underscored by blueberries, raspberries, and a touch of vanilla. Its full-bodied and robust character ensures a resounding and unforgettable taste experience.

Serving suggestions

For best results, decant an hour before serving. This full-bodied wine pairs excellently with hearty dishes or strong cheeses, transforming each occasion into a special event with its evolving flavors over the years.

Family of Wine

In the Old City of Jerusalem, the Shor family founded Israel's first recorded winery in 1847. Now, over 170 years later, the seventh and eighth generation manage the fifth largest winery in Israel. Hayotzer Winery marries the tradition of Israel's foremost wine family with the creativity of one of Israel's finest winemakers.
